

THE ARGUMENT

The individual Side Show booths are to be seen as representing the all encompassing structures of Mammon. These vulgar and gilded prisons, containing the images of lost childhood: ghosts held by the vicious, selfish bureaucracies of state - that circus, whose ringmasters manipulate childhood's "Grace", moulding them, thus to echo and mirror the cycle of their own barren life.

